

WHY YOU SHOULD USE
ALL WASHINGTON LEGAL CLINIC OF
SEATTLE/TACOMA/EVERETT

EXPERIENCE

All Washington Legal Clinic of Seattle, Tacoma, and Everett is operated by attorney Tom S. Hyde, a sole proprietor, who has experience in thousands of divorces and bankruptcies.

ATTORNEYS

Every client has a personal conference with an attorney to get his or her questions answered. There is no charge for your initial conference with the attorney.

Beware of people calling themselves "paralegals" or "typists" who want to charge you money to type up your court papers. These people are not lawyers, and they cannot answer your legal questions or go to court for you. They will tell you that you do not need a lawyer. Unfortunately, by the time you realize you do need a lawyer, it is too late. Over the years we have observed many problems created by these non-lawyers.

LOW FEES

You have the benefit of having a lawyer handle your divorce at a fraction of what you would normally pay. The fee for an uncontested divorce is only $200 without dependent children or $250 with dependent children, plus the court filing fee.

COURT APPEARANCES

If your spouse will sign the court papers, you do not have to go to court at all. An attorney from our office will appear in court for you and finalize your divorce.

ANNULMENTS, LEGAL SEPARATIONS, MODIFICATIONS

We handle annulments, legal separations, and modifications of child support and parenting plans for the same prices. All the information in this questionnaire is necessary for an annulment or a legal separation. The attorney will answer your questions about annulments at the conference.

PROPERTY AND DEBTS DIVISIONS, PARENTING PLANS & CHILD SUPPORT

We help you divide your property and debts, prepare your parenting plan and calculate your child support.

CONTESTS

If your spouse will not sign the divorce papers, we will help you start your divorce by serving your spouse. There may be additional charges involved. If your case becomes contested, we will handle it for an additional fee or refer you to an attorney who will handle it for you.

FEES

The following is the attorney fee charged by Tom S. Hyde for an uncontested divorce, legal separation or annulment without dependent children of this marriage:

$250

In order to avoid delays, you should pay this fee in cash or money order. If you pay by personal check, the filing of your case can be delayed up to three weeks.

Filing Fee: The court also charges a filing fee of $280. That fee will have to be paid at the time you want your case filed with the court. There is an additional $30 ex parte fee for not appearing in court. These fees must be provided in the form of a MONEY ORDER or CASHIER'S CHECK at the time you want your matter filed or completed with the court. Should you elect not to go forward or complete your case, these fees will be returned to you.

There is a $75 fee for checks which are returned for any reason. If you want a copy of your questionnaire for your records, you should make one before you return it. If you want us to make a copy of your questionnaire for you, you should bring an additional $25 in cash or a money order.

PROVIDING INFORMATION SAVES YOU MONEY

All Washington Legal Clinic of Seattle, Tacoma, and Everett offers you an attorney's help in obtaining your divorce at a very low fee. We can do this only if you will take the time to provide us with all the requested information before you meet with the attorney. This questionnaire is designed to help you save money by collecting all the necessary information before your meeting with the attorney. Consequently, it is very important that you read and carefully follow the instructions in this questionnaire. If the information you provide at your meeting with the attorney is incorrect or incomplete, your papers will have to be changed and you will be charged additional fees of $100 or more. You can avoid additional fees by collecting all the information before your meeting with the attorney.

FREE INITIAL CONSULTATION

After you have filled out this questionnaire, you will be given a free initial consultation with the attorney based upon the information in the questionnaire. The attorney will answer your questions and advise you about your case. The answers and advice the attorney will give you are based on the information you provide in this questionnaire, and the consultation is free only if the questionnaire is filled out.

If you have not filled out the questionnaire, the attorney can answer only general questions and there will be a fee of $100 cash (no credit cards or checks can be accepted) for the consultation.

SHOULD I BRING THE FEES TO THE INITIAL CONSULTATION?

You are not required to bring the fees to the free initial consultation, but most clients do so in order to avoid making two trips. If you will not have the fees for another week or so, you should still come in and have your consultation now.

SECTION 1. PERSONAL AND MARRIAGE INFORMATION

IS ALL THIS INFORMATION NECESSARY? Yes. Some of the information requested on the following page is necessary to prepare the papers which begin your divorce. The rest of the information must be submitted to the Bureau of Vital Statistics at the time we file those papers. The only blanks which you do not have to fill in are the ones asking for telephone numbers. If you do not have a telephone or you do not know your spouse's telephone number, you may omit that information. If you do not know the county in which the marriage took place, you may omit that also.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER: The mandatory forms require that you provide the Social Security number for yourself and your spouse. If you do not provide your spouse's Social Security number, we will assume that you do not know it and have no way of finding out what it is.

DRIVER'S LICENSE/IDENTICARD: The mandatory forms also require that you provide the driver's license or identicard number for you and your spouse. If you do not provide your spouse's driver's license or identicard number, we will assume that you do not know it and have no way of finding out what it is.

MILITARY SERVICE: If your spouse is presently on active duty in the military service, you will need his or her cooperation in order to use the uncontested divorce service. He or she will have to sign the papers which we will prepare for you. If your spouse will not cooperate by signing these papers, you will need special assistance to obtain your divorce.

If you are on active duty in the military service, you can obtain your divorce in Washington only if one of the following applies: (1) Washington in your home state of record; (2) you will be stationed in Washington throughout the 90 day waiting period (even if you are temporarily on duty elsewhere); or (3) your spouse is a resident of Washington.

CAN I CHANGE MY NAME? Yes. Either of you can change your name as long as you are not changing it to defraud creditors. If you want your name legally changed, make a note of the desired name on the next page.

WHAT IF MY SPOUSE IS MISSING? If your spouse is missing, you must try to locate him or her by contacting relatives or friends. If you are not able to locate him or her, write the word "missing" in the blank which asks for your spouse's address. Special papers will be prepared for you which will allow you to start your divorce by publishing notice of the divorce in a local newspaper at additional expense.

SECTION 2. DIVIDING UP THE PROPERTY AND DEBTS

LIST ALL PROPERTY You must list all your property in this section even if you purchased it before the marriage or you feel that it belongs to only one of you. Do not leave anything out because you think it is separate property.

DO I HAVE TO DECIDE NOW? It is important to decide how the property and debts should be divided now. If you do not ask for the division of property and debts you want at the beginning, you may not get what you want later.

PERSONAL PROPERTY: PART A deals with your personal property and must be filled out even if you own very little property or if you have already divided up your property. It is important that you read each question in PART A carefully because there might be some property which you have overlooked. Be sure to include the license numbers of any vehicles to be awarded to you. This will help you to transfer them into your name even if your spouse will not cooperate. You must transfer the title to vehicles awarded to you within 15 days after the divorce is final in order to avoid penalties.

REAL ESTATE: PART B concerns real estate which you or your spouse own, have an option on, or which you are buying or selling. If you own real estate, have an option on real estate, or are buying or selling some real estate, you should fill out PART B very carefully. Otherwise, you may leave PART B blank.

SEPARATE PROPERTY: If you believe any of the property you list is not community property, write "separate property" in the margin by the property. If you do not write "separate property" in the margin, we will assume that it is community property.

SEPARATE DEBTS: Write "separate debt" by any debt which you feel is not a community obligation.

DEBTS: You should make sure that all the debts which you and your spouse owe are listed in PART C. If they are not listed in PART C, there may be confusion later regarding who is required to pay them. The obvious debts are charge accounts and loans, but you should also consider the less obvious debts such as loans from your families and income taxes owed for this or previous years.

SEPARATION AGREEMENTS: If you have signed any agreement regarding your property and debts, a copy of that agreement will have to be filed with the court. You must bring a copy to your conference so that the attorney can advise you regarding it. If you do not bring a copy to your conference, your papers may have to be changed later and there may be additional charges.

SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE: PART D deals with spousal maintenance (alimony). Spousal maintenance is not required in all cases. If you feel spousal maintenance is appropriate in your case, you should put down the exact amount which should be paid, the date on which it should begin, and the date on which it should end.

PART A. PERSONAL PROPERTY

IMPORTANT: You should check one or more boxes after each question in this section and fill in any blanks after the boxes which you check. If you are describing a piece of property, be very specific so that it will not be confused with another piece of property.

DEPENDENT CHILDREN Generally, a dependent child is one who is not married or otherwise self-supporting. A child who is under age eighteen or still attending high school should be listed as a dependent child unless the child lives outside the family home and is married or self-supporting. A child who has graduated high school and is eighteen years or older is normally not considered dependent, but you may agree that support should continue longer because the child has some special needs or is attending college and needs assistance with educational expenses. There is a section on page 21 dealing with college and trade school expenses.

HOW MANY PAGES SHOULD I FILL OUT? You should fill out one of the following pages for each child who was born or conceived during this marriage or adopted during the marriage. There are four blank pages. Use only as many pages as you need. If you need more than four pages, make copies of one of the pages and use the copies for additional children.

PART A On each page there is a PART A. This part must be filled out for each child.

PART B On each page there is a PART B. You can leave PART B blank unless you know that one of the following two things has happened:

- (1) a lawsuit in any state has been started in the past or is now going on regarding the custody, paternity, or dependency of this child; or
- (2) some person other than the father or mother claims to have visitation rights with this child.

If you know that one of these things has happened, you must describe it in PART B.

INCOMPLETE INFORMATION: If you leave any lines in this section blank, we will assume that there was no relevant information which should be included on that line.

SECTION 4. RESIDENTIAL SCHEDULE FOR CHILDREN

IMPORTANT: THE COURT WILL NOT GRANT YOUR DIVORCE UNLESS YOU HAVE SUBMITTED A PARENTING PLAN WITH A RESIDENTIAL SCHEDULE IN THE REQUIRED FORM. The "Parenting Act" requires that the residential schedule in your papers specify where your children will be on every day of the year. You can achieve this by putting some specific entry in each part of this section. The judge will not accept phrases like "reasonable visitation" or "liberal visitation," and you CANNOT leave the decision to be made later with phrases such as "whenever he/she want to see the child" or "whenever the child wants" or "as agreed."

NOTE: If this residential schedule will not apply to all your children, you must make copies of this Section 4 and fill out a separate copy for the children who have a different residential schedule. We will then make two separate parenting plans. The additional charge for the second parenting plan will be $200.

You must put some entry in EVERY blank. If you leave any blank empty, we will assume that the answer is "$0". If you expect a change in jobs or income during the 90 day waiting period, you should put down the income you expect to receive after the change.

EVERY ENTRY MUST BE FOR A MONTH - not hourly, weekly, etc. If you do not have pay stubs available, you can estimate. If you are not paid monthly, you will need to convert the to a monthly amount as follows:

- If you are paid EVERY TWO WEEKS multiply ALL amount on your stub by 2.17

INSTRUCTION LETTER TO TOM S. HYDE

I have read all the instructions in this questionnaire carefully, have answered all the questions to the best of my knowledge, and have made a reasonable attempt to find any information necessary to answer the questions accurately. My spouse has not previously hired Tom S. Hyde to obtain a divorce from me.

I agree to pay Tom S. Hyde a flat fee payment of $250. I intend this $250 to be payment for preparation of the papers necessary for my divorce based on the information contained in this questionnaire and for the signing and filing of those papers. It has also been explained to me that additional fees will have to be paid if my case requires a process server, mailing of documents or letters to me or my spouse, publication of the summons, changes after my papers have been prepared, communications with my spouse or with other attorneys, drafting an order to divide retirement benefits, monitoring inactive cases, or some other special attention. Any additional fees will have to be paid before the additional work is performed. If the additional fees are not paid as requested, I understand that Tom S. Hyde will withdraw from the case, and I will have to obtain the services of another attorney. Upon receipt by Tom S. Hyde of all or any portion of the flat fee, the funds are the property of Tom S. Hyde and will not be placed in a trust account. The fact that you have paid your fee in advance does not affect your right to terminate the client-lawyer relationship. In the event our relationship is terminated before the agreed-upon legal services have been completed, you may or may not have a right to a refund of a portion of the fee.

I also understand that I will have to pay a separate filing fee to the county clerk of the county in which my papers are filed in the form of a MONEY ORDER or CASHIER'S CHECK made payable to the Clerk of the Court of the county in which my matter will be filed. If I decide not to have my case filed or completed for any reason, this filing fee and any ex parte fee will be returned to me. If I change addresses I agree to provide my new address to Tom S. Hyde so that he will be able to return any filing fee or any similar fee.

I have negotiated my own division of property and debts with my spouse, and I request that Tom S. Hyde prepare the papers to begin my divorce based upon the agreement which we have reached. I will then return to the offices of Tom S. Hyde and sign the papers. After I have signed these papers and my spouse has either signed the papers or been served with the papers, I will have to wait 90 days before my divorce can be finalized. If my divorce is being handled by publication of summons, I understand that the 90 day waiting period will not begin until the first date of publication. About two months after the waiting period begins, I agree to stop by the office of Tom S. Hyde and sign the final papers to complete my divorce.

I understand that the papers which will be prepared for me are not the ones which should be used if my spouse is contesting the division of property or debts. I am aware that Tom S. Hyde handles only uncontested divorces and agree that Tom S. Hyde's representation in this case is limited to uncontested matters. If my case becomes contested, Tom S. Hyde may withdraw from my case and may refer me to another independent attorney, and I will have to make my own fee arrangements with that attorney.

I further understand that my divorce may be filed in a county other than the county in which I reside for efficiency reasons and that, if my spouse objects, I may have to pay an additional court filing fee to have the case transferred to a county in which one of us resides.

I understand that Tom S. Hyde will open a file with regard to my case, and I agree that all documents in that file and all documents which I deliver to Tom S. Hyde are the property of Tom S. Hyde. I understand that Tom S. Hyde will give me one copy of my petition and one copy of my decree without additional charge. If I want additional copies of my petition or decree or copies of any other documents in my file, I agree to pay a copying fee before the copies are made.
